In this one day workshop on Saturday 9th February 2019 Roy Sunley will take us into the world of “Supercharging your Healing”. All are very welcome from the novice to the experienced Healer and Spiritualist.

We will review the main healing modalities we use in the West and look at how combined those modalities offer amazing physical and emotional relief from a myriad of complaints and anxieties. We will work with “Budha’s Brain: The practical neuroscience of happiness, love and wisdom to open our minds to healing through the brain and changing our thought processes for good.

On this workshop we will work as individuals, pairs and teams to maximise learning, practice and look at the amazing skills we have buried in our minds. We are all natural healers so come and see how much more can you learn and use to benefit yourself and those around you.

Join Roy from 10.00 until 4pm and learn new ways to access and Supercharge your Healing Energies and work with different Modalities to enhance your results.
